Hail to thee, our Alma Mater!
 Guardian of our youth,
 Ever lead they children onward
 Into light and truth;
 Unborn youth will take our place
 To praise thee endlessly,
 Pembroke State, our Alma Mater,
 Hail to P. S. C.

Raise the chorus, blend the voices,
 Let the echoes ring.
 To our loving foster parent
 Loudly praises sing;
 Swell the chorus 'till it reaches
 On through eternity
 Pembroke State, our Alma Mater,
 Hail to P. S. C.

For Everything

There Is A Season.

A Time to Kill....A Time to Heal

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven;

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Teacher of the Year

Mr. James Horton

The talent of teaching is one to be cherished. It is for this reason that the Senior Class has chosen Mr. James Horton as Teacher of the Year. It has been his constant goal to broaden the minds of students in the area of Natural Science.

President English E. Jones

PEMBROKE STATE COLLEGE

PEMBROKE, NORTH CAROLINA

OFFICE OF
THE PRESIDENT

My Dear Friends:

In every person's life there is ample season to grow into God's complete meaning for mankind - a time to be born and to grow into usefullness and service for humanity.

For the college student, there is a time to study, to play, to develop, and to prepare himself for tomorrow. At the same time, he should make his soul enjoy good in his labor . . . for it is from the hand of God . . . for God giveth to a man that which is good in his sight - wisdom, knowledge, and joy.

There is nothing better for all of us than that a man should rejoice in the excellency of his own works as he serves God and realizes that everything hath been made beautiful, just for him, in his own time. Indeed, to every thing there is a season and a time to every purpose under heaven: a time to plant, a time to harvest, a time to die, and moreover, a time to be born anew in the kingdom of God's bountiful world which he hath created for all of us.

Sincerely,

English E. Jones

FINE ARTS SERIES

Miss Karen Duke intrigued the audience with her performance entitled, "Songs with Guitar". Men of Song

Mr. Edmund Korlsrud and the Men of Song presented an evening of fine entertainment at Pembroke State College. Mr. Korlsrud, now in his thirties, has well exceeded a thousand performances. The group did an array of vocal music which ranged from Classical to Modern day popular arrangements.

The Rainer Twins

The talented twins furnished an array of classical music in the role of piano duettists. It was truly an evening of enlightenment and cultural entertainment.

Indianhead Staff

The Indianhead Staff has worked many long and tedious hours to edit a book that can be cherished by the members of the Pembroke Student Body. We have endeavored to collect into one body all facets of college life—academics, dorm life, dances, ballgames, club activities. Our college has grown extensively during the past year. Both girls and boys have entered into new housing facilities, new professors have joined the staff, many people have been met, and new friends made. This campus will never look this way again. Only the students of 1965-1966 will know Pembroke as we do. To the student at Pembroke State College all the different views of college life will be remembered; not just the one memory of attending classes. Although, at times, it has been difficult to express in pictures what words can say, we hope that this edition of the Indianhead will be one that you, the reader, will always look upon with fond memories.

IN MEMORIAM

H. FRANKIE REEVES, JR.

When the evening shadows are falling
And I am sitting all alone,
Into my heart comes a longing
If only you could come home.

I wonder why you had to go
and leave me here to weep,
for many silent tears I shed
While others are asleep.

They saw you fading like a flower
But could not make you stay;
I cared for you with loving kindness
Still the master took you away.

God saw you were getting weaker
The hill was hard to climb;
He gently closed your loving
Eyes and whispered
"peace be Thine"

My heart is filled with sorrow,
My eyes with tears;
God only knows how much I
Miss You.

The angels are safely guarding
A sacred and silent grave,
Far in it lies a precious one
I loved but could not save.

His love is a beautiful memory
His absence is my silent grief
He is asleep in God's beautiful garden
In the sunshine of perfect peace.

Your loving wife,
Gwen
